Resolutions.

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Oct. 30, '85.
We, the pupils of South Kentucky College, in view of the high esteem in which we held Mrs. Gaines, one of our most noble and highly honored instructors, learn with deep regret of her demise. We herewith wish to present the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The death of Mrs. Gaines, one of our beloved instructors, is heard with great sorrow. We sincerely mourn our loss. May peace be to her ashes.

WHEREAS, She has been with us but a short while, yet pleasant was her stay and great the good she imparted.

Resolved, We recognized in her a true christian, and devoted to the works of Him who ruleth all.

Resolved, We know that we must all soon be parted, yet, we trust that we may meet her in that home where death comes never more.

Resolved, We wish to extend to the bereaved husband, friends and relatives our heart-felt sympathies. May their days of melancholy and solitude be cherished by the loving hand of Him who gives to all a blessing.

SUSIE B. STITES,
FANNIE B. LILLARD, Com.
CYRUS S. RADFORD,
OTHO H. ANDERSON.

The marriage of Miss Mollie Gringer, a daughter of Esq. Thos. H. Gringer, and Mr. Ed Street, is announced to take place at Cadiz on the 11th inst.

HERE AND THERE.

A cottage for rent, apply to Jno. W. Breathitt, Sr.

The wheat crop is about all in and that now up is looking unusually well.

The young gentlemen of the city will give a dance at How's Hall this evening.

Rev. A. C. Biddle will preach at the Cumberland Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening.

The resolutions elsewhere on the death of Mrs. Gaines were mislaid and their publication unintentionally delayed.

Miss Alice Hayes will offer special bargains in fine millinery goods until the close of the season, and it will be to your interest to call on her.

The Rink will be open for the season on next Tuesday evening. It will be under the management of Mr. R. M. Woodriddle.

Rev. A. W. Meacham closed a very successful revival at Little River church last Sunday. There were thirteen additions to the church.

The new store rooms on Main street are still unfinished. It is now over ten months since the old buildings were burned.

John Barker, the negro boy who knifed Mr. D. A. Means the morning of Oct. 4th, has at last been tried and held over under $100 bond, for malicious cutting.

Miss Alice Hayes is just in receipt of a large and elegant line of millinery goods, from New York City, to which she invites the especial attention of the ladies.

Our wide-awake Macedonia correspondent sends us the particulars of a bloody murder near the Caldwell county line. Some of the parties concerned lived in this county.

A G. A. R. Post will be organized in this city next Tuesday, Nov. 10th. All ex-Federal soldiers who desire to be mustered in are requested to be at the Court House at 10 o'clock.

A well-dressed umbrella thief worked the town a few days ago. His scheme was to call and take out umbrellas to mend and never return. He stole several in this way.

By order of the State Executive Committee a county convention of colored citizens will be held at the Court house on Nov. 19th, at 12 o'clock. A large attendance is desired, as business of importance to the race will be discussed.

Dr. B. Manly, of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, is expected to attend the Baptist Missionary Circle to meet in this city at 10 o'clock Saturday, Nov. 28. The exercises will be continued through Sunday. Visiting brethren will be cordially welcomed and entertained.

Now is your time to buy you a No. 1 buggy, rockaway, phaeton or barouche, as we want to close out our stock and not carry them over until next spring. Call early and examine our stock, and let us quote you prices, lower than ever offered in the past 14 years. McCamy, Bonte & Co.

Messrs. J. H. Huggins, Terry Shelton and Sam A. Glover who went with their families to Texas a year or two ago to live, returned yesterday fully convinced that Kentucky is the best State in the Union. They were all good, substantial citizens and we are glad to chronicle their return to Christian country.

Miss Patti Rosa appeared Wednesday evening in the the laughable Comedy, "Bob," and gave the fullest satisfaction. Her support was good and the audience, though small—owing to the inclement weather—was a very appreciative one. The charming little actress has made many admirers here and should she play a return engagement there would be but few empty seats in the Opera House.

The Board of Councilmen deferred action on the proposed street ordinance at their last meeting until next month. They desire to get some expression from the citizens upon the matter of numbering the cross streets and resolved themselves into a committee of the whole to feel the public pulse by the time they meet again. If they hear of no reasonable objections they will proceed with the good work. In the meanwhile our columns are open for a full and free discussion of the matter. Let us hear from some of the citizens.

No one can look upon Hopkinsville as it is to-day and compare it with what it was five years ago without being struck with the many elegant and substantial improvements which have been made. Five years ago the most credulous could not have been made to believe it and now were it asserted that the same progress would be witnessed in the next five years to come there is not a man in town who would believe it. National, municipal and individual prosperity often appear the result of accident and come in a way we know not; while wealth, fame and fortune take unexpected wings and fly away.

The following is a translation of a unique communication received yesterday. It evidently refers to the article written by J. A. Smithson denouncing gambling, which appears in another column. The editor has no intention of letting either party "get away with" him, whatever that may mean. Whenever a controversy is permitted in our columns at all both sides are given a fair showing, so we publish the following:

DAWSON CROSSING,
DOVER ROAD, Nov. 4.

MR. EDITOR:—Sir: Don't you let Jim Smithson get away with you on we poor nigs, for he don't take your paper and Sunday is the poor nigs' day.

COLORED NIGS AND FRIENDS.

A BLOODY MURDER.

Pleas Pendergrass Killed Near the Caldwell County Line, by Walter Greer and Alex Inglicie.

(Correspondence of the SOUTH KENTUCKIAN.)

MACE DONIA, Nov. 2, 1885.

Again I am called upon to report one of the many brutal murders that mark the history of our country. On last Thursday evening the news spread like wildfire that Walter Greer, a youthful crank of Dawson had shot and killed Pleas Pendergrass, near that town. It was first announced that Greer had shot Pendergrass, believing that the gun contained only a blank load. Later the facts of an altercation between the murdered boy and a boy by the name of Inglicie, began to develop and the public began to think and speak of the matter as a premeditated and well planned assassination upon the part of Alex Inglicie. Greer and Inglicie were subsequently arrested and Greer interviewed, whereupon Greer confessed that he shot Pendergrass believing that the gun contained a blank load. He also stated that as he fired Inglicie also fired a pistol, and upon examining the corpse it was found that two loads had taken effect, one entering the heart and the other taking effect in the shoulder above the heart. The following are the facts in the case as near as I could gather from an uncle of the murdered boy and others from that vicinity; Pleas Pendergrass was driving a team for Mr. Ben Menser, of Dawson, and on Wednesday evening as he was passing the Dawson Mills Alex Inglicie assailed and grossly insulted him by snatching and abusing his hat. A fight ensued and Pendergrass claimed the victory when Inglicie broke for a gun but failing to procure it declared he would kill Pendergrass. On Thursday Pendergrass went to a farm belonging to Menser just across the Caldwell county line to cut some stove wood. Alex Inglicie in company with his brother and Walter Greer went out hunting and went to where Pendergrass was at work; they subsequently returned to town and announced the shooting. Mr. and Mrs. Pendergrass followed by other citizens went immediately to the woods to find their son a bloody corpse. Greer says that Inglicie suggested the idea of shooting Pendergrass with a blank load and loaded and cocked the gun himself and as he handed the gun to Greer he stepped behind and also fired the pistol and Pendergrass dropped dead. It is said that it will be proven that there were four shots fired and the two pistol shots took effect in the boy's body. Greer is considered a non compos mentis and it is quite possible and probable that he was ignorant of his comrade's plans and only meant to perpetrate what he thought to be a joke. Or possibly the loads in the gun were as he thought blank and that only the pistol shots took effect; both Inglicie and Greer were taken to Princeton Friday and lodged in jail and the examining trial set for Wednesday.

ROUGH AND READY.

ROMANTIC ELOPEMENT.
An Old Bachelor Runs Away With a Pretty Widow.

On last Wednesday, Nov. 4th, Mr. Joshua S. Summers, of Longview, eloped to Clarksville with Mrs. Lucy Lacy Dunlap and they were married at 3:30 o'clock in the parlor of the Franklin House. They were accompanied by Mr. W. T. Cooper, of this city, a nephew of the groom, and Miss Zeula Davidson, of Lafayette, a relative of the bride, who was making her a visit. Wednesday morning Mr. Summers started out to take the young ladies riding in a buggy and "by accident" Mr. Cooper overtook him and as he was "going to Clarksville," they concluded to go with him "just for fun" and Miss Davidson got into his buggy and they were soon in the Gretna Green of southern Kentucky. Not until about an hour before the marriage was Miss Davidson let into the secret. They were married by a Methodist minister and returned to this city in time to go to the theatre that evening.

Mr. Summers is a substantial farmer and a clever, good citizen and the wonder is that some pretty young lady hasn't captured him before. His bride is a sister of Mr. Z. T. Lacy, and lived with her mother on her farm adjoining Mr. Summers'. Just why they chose to elope is a mystery. They probably wanted to be romantic and at the same time surprise their friends. We wish them much happiness.
